- For a short hike, Westerås Farm, located up above Geiranger village, is a popular starting point. It is just a quick walk to reach Vesteråsfjellet. The trail has a gradual ascent followed by a short descent to the viewpoint. Starting from Westerås Farm, walk along the dirt road through the paddocks where sheep, goats, and llamas graze. Once you reach the fork in the trail, continue to the left and wind down to the viewpoint. Return along the same trail. This is a pleasant stroll, about 20 minutes each way between the farm and the viewpoint. (The walk from Geiranger village to Westerås Farm takes around 45 minutes)

Difficulty: Easy	Elevation Gain: 40 meters	Distance: 1 kilometers (out-and-back)
